While reading the magazines for a year, the aspirants will gain knowledge of current affairs and have various perspectives on a given scenario because of the descriptive illustration and various opinions being expressed in the magazines. Apart from presenting the Indian Governemnt's views about various issues, the Kurukshetra Magazine also provides the data and analytical descriptions concerning the same. Reading the Athis Magazine equips the candidates well in a manner so that they write logically convincing Essays for the Essay Paper, the Mains, CSE. The magazine embraces various initiatives and schemes organized by the Government for rural upliftment. The magazine discusses various aspects of horticulture, animal husbandry, and food security. Since the source of information gathered is from Government, therefore, the credibility and authenticity of the knowledge shared are trustworthy. Aspirants can download free versions of all the previous two-three year's edition of Kurukshetra Magazine and start going through them for preparing the essay paper and GS paper for UPSC mains. How is Kurukshetra Magazine different from Yojana Magazine? The official venture by the Government of India has sponsored the publications of Kurukshetra Magazine and Yojana Magazine. Here are all the easily downloadable links for pdf versions and one can study them online. FAQs What is Kurukshetra Magazine? Kurukshetra Magazine is a monthly magazine published by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, under the official venture and sponsorship by the Government of India. Both of these sections are concentrated on rural upliftment and development in recent years of India. Kurukshetra Magazine focuses on India's social issues related to rural governance. One should thoroughly read the magazine and makes notes for future references. The 10th issue is packed with 120 pages of some of the world's hottest men! (and no pesky advertising!)
